Recreational Off-Highway or All-Terrain Vehicle Used for Farming or Lawn Care

Texas Department of Motor Vehicles

This form will serve as the appropriate documentation that the Recreational Off-Highway (ROV) or All-Terrain Vehicle (ATV) listed is exempt from the Title requirement. ROV or ATV purchasers may qualify for a Title exemption if the ROV or ATV is for farming or lawn care use (see Exemption Qualifications below).

An ROV or ATV is:

- a motor vehicle that is equipped with a seat (or seats) for the use of the rider and a passenger (or passengers) if the manufacturer designed the vehicle to transport a passenger or passengers. ATVs may transport one passenger and ROVs may transport more than one passenger;
- designed to propel itself with four or more (ROV) or three or more (ATV) tires in contact with the ground;
- designed by the manufacturer for off-highway use;
- not designed by the manufacturer primarily for farming or lawn care.

Exemption Qualifications

- Vehicle qualifies as a ROV or ATV as defined above.
- Vehicle must have four or more tires in contact with the ground (3-wheel ATVs are not eligible for Title exemption).
- Vehicle will be primarily used for farming or lawn care.
- Vehicle does not have multiple rows of seats.
