WHO MAY BE AN eTAG ADMINISTRATOR:

Pursuant to rule changes effective January 1, 2023, under Texas Administrative Code §215.133:

- An eTAG administrator must be an owner or person acting in a representative capacity for the license holder, such as an officer, director, member, manager, trustee, partner, principal, or general manager of the business affairs.
- The eTAG administrator selected must be listed in the associated eLICENSING account as an owner or person acting in a representative capacity for the license holder.
- If you are unsure which individuals are currently listed in the eLICENSING account, please contact your current eLICENSING administrator or reach out to the TxDMV call center.

WHO MAY SIGN THIS FORM:

- This form must be signed in the presence of a notary public by an owner or person acting in a representative capacity for the license holder such as an officer, director, member, manager, trustee, partner, principal, or general manager of the business affairs.
- NOTE: When you change the eTAG information, a new username and password will be generated and sent to the new email address provided.
